

Soar above the competition

Aerial Billboards, Inc. helps RV DEALERS increase traffic to their BUSINESS

With experience designing both helium blimps and cold air balloons, Aerial Billboards has built a reputation on catering to their clients.

These unique, inflatable marketing tools have helped draw attention and more traffic to dealerships throughout the United States.

Each custom-designed inflatable developed by Aerial Billboards helps owners increase brand awareness with a low cost per impression. Aerial Billboards also works closely with each of their clients to ensure satisfaction and an original design.

Ideal for grand openings, sales promotions, open houses, conventions and community events, Aerial Billboards' inflatables create heightened interest in a business with high visual impact. Dealers can also attach blimp banners with an additional message to the inflatable for increased exposure.

Testimonials

"I am a firm believer in your products and I highly recommend this form of advertising to all RV dealerships. It's truly pennies on the dollar when compared to conventional advertising."
